

Preface

The present special issue of TCS is a Festschrift for John C. Reynolds on the occasion of his 70th birthday. It consists of contributed articles reflecting facets of John's rich career and influential publications on

- Algol
(Claudio Hermida and Bob Tennent),
- category theory
(Martin Hyland, Paul Blain Levy, Gordon Plotkin, and John Power),
- continuations
(Andrzej Filinski),
- defunctionalization
(Małgorzata Biernacka and Olivier Danvy),
- interference
(Cliff Jones),
- flow analysis
(Neil Jones and Nils Andersen; Olin Shivers and Matthew Might),
- logical relations
(Eijiro Sumii and Benjamin Pierce),
- polymorphism
(Peter Freyd;
Philip Wadler),
- separation logic
(Stephen Brookes;
Peter O'Hearn;
Hongseok Yang),
and
- type theory
(Lockwood Morris).

The Festschrift is concluded by a few words from each of John's PhD students, as collected by Frank Oles.

Submissions were solicited by the editors and subjected to the usual refereeing process for TCS. We thank Don Sannella for editing the three submissions by the editors.
